

The Australia Day Council Northern Territory invites you to attend the Australian of the Year Awards & conference in Alice Springs on Thursday 31 October & Friday 1 November. This is a unique opportunity to network, share ideas and strengthen community engagement.

Venue

The Awards & conference will both be held at the Alice Springs Convention Centre. We will provide travel and accommodation for one delegate per local government region. Additional delegates, partners and other representatives are encouraged to attend at their own cost. Please contact our office for further information.

Highlights

This is the first time the Australian of the Year Awards are being held outside of a capital city. Amy Hetherington, Amiable Communication - Conference Master of Ceremonies. Kate Everett, 2019 Australia’s Local Hero – Dolly’s Dream, the year that’s been. Dale McIver, Event Management and Consultancy - How to succeed for more than 50 years. Steve Shearer, Thrifty Car Rental – What sponsors look for in a partnership.

Schedule

Thursday 31 October
5:30pm-8:00pm NT Australian of the Year Awards – Convention Centre
Friday 1 November
8:30am-3:30pm Conference – Convention Centre

Registration

Registration cost is $200.00 per person

This provides each delegate with the following;

- Attendance at the NT Australian of the Year Awards
- Attendance at all conference sessions
- All day catering
- Conference material and access to digital presentations

Full name: _____ Region: _____

Postal address: _____ State: _____ Post code: _____

Email: _____ Mobile: _____

Do you have any special requirements including dietary? _____