

TONY BURNS

An achiever with a heart of gold, Tony brightens the lives of everyone he meets. Currently the CEO of Helping People Achieve Tony dedicates his time to making life easier for others and is an inspiration to people who are physically and intellectually challenged.
www.helpingpeopleachieve.com.au

DR BO REMENYI

As a junior doctor working in remote communities, Dr Bo Reményi filled out too many death certificates for children dying of preventable heart disease. Today, Bo is a paediatric cardiologist tackling the Northern Territory's rate of Rheumatic Heart Disease, currently the highest in the world.

NATALIE BELL

A born and bred Territorian, Natalie specialises in delivering and implementing strategic communication solutions and delivering international conferences, customised business events and festivals. Natalie has extensive experience working across government, private and the NFP sector,
www.aap.com.au

JEANNETTE BUTTON

With more than twenty five years experience in the communication industry Jeannette established her own public relations consultancy PR Button in 2014. She is an accomplished practitioner, experienced in crises and media management.
www.prbutton.com.au

AMY HETHERINGTON

Amy has a jack of all trades tool kit of communications skills and lots of energy. She is passionate about creating content and sharing stories in a fun, enjoyable and aimable style. She is heavily involved in the community.
www.amiablecommunications.com.au

REBECCA FORREST

Former media & marketing manager for NTPFES, Bec has head up communication relating to cyclones, floods & missing persons. Committed to the community Bec has raised more than $1Million for NFP organisations including Life Education, NO MORE Campaign, White Ribbon, Total Recreation & Autism NT.

On Australia Day we come together as a nation to celebrate all the things we love about Australia; our land, sense of a fair go, lifestyle, democracy, the freedoms we enjoy and particularly our people.

In the Northern Territory these celebrations take on many forms from fun runs, flag raising ceremonies and multi-cultural events through to a network of community and family fun days

Australia Day

Australia Day Council
Northern Territory