

Australia Day Citizen of the year Awards

Awards guide

On Australia Day communities across the Northern Territory present Citizen of the Year Awards in three categories: Citizen, Young Citizen and Community Event of the Year. Sponsored by the Department of Housing and Community Development these awards are free for communities to participate in and recognise personal achievements and community contribution by individuals and groups.

Awards

- Young Citizen under 30 years of age on 26 January 2021
- Citizen 30 years and over
These awards recognise personal endeavours, achievements and community contributions from individuals.
- Community Event
This award recognises the achievements of a group or entire community. It may be a specific community project or the continuous work of a local organisation.

Process

1. Complete and return the registration form by Monday 28 September 2020. You need to complete one form per community. If your municipality has multiple communities, please photocopy the form.
2. Advertise the awards and call for nominations in your community. These awards belong to you; you're responsible for the management and presentation of them. Our office can provide electronic copies of nomination forms for you to use as a guide if you like.
3. Choose your award recipients.
4. The Australia Day Council will send you certificates and frames for the awards.
5. Print your certificates and assemble in frames. We can supply printing templates, or you may prefer to hand write on certificates.
6. You will receive a notification of recipients form in early November. Please complete this form and return by Wednesday 9 December 2020. Award recipients will be published in the NT News on Australia Day.
7. Arrange presentation of the awards. We encourage you to present the awards at your community's Australia Day celebrations.
